Case summary

AI summary · edited by you, 22 Sep

Our client agreed to buy Plot 14-B, DHA Phase VI, Lahore for PKR 42.5 million and paid PKR 8.5 million as earnest money. The defendant failed to transfer the plot by the agreed date of 30 June 2025 and later offered to return the earnest money. We seek specific performance of the agreement to sell, or in the alternative, refund with damages.

Issues framed by the court

1.	Whether the plaintiff is entitled to a decree for specific performance of the agreement to sell dated 12 January 2025?	OPP
2.	Whether the plaintiff was ready and willing to perform his part of the agreement?	OPP
3.	Whether the suit is barred by limitation?	OPD
4.	Relief.

You

What is the limitation period for a suit for specific performance of an agreement to sell immovable property? Our completion date was 30 June 2025.

LegalEase AI

Short answer: three years — your deadline is 30 June 2028

Because the agreement fixes a date for performance, time runs from that date. A suit filed on or before 30 June 2028 is within time. 1

When the clock starts

Situation	Period	Time runs from
Date fixed for performance YOUR CASE	3 years	The date fixed
No date fixed	3 years	When plaintiff has notice that performance is refused

Points to check in your file

1. Confirm the completion date in the agreement itself, not only in correspondence.

2. Section 5 extension does not apply to suits — the court cannot condone a late plaint. 1

3. Being within time does not guarantee a decree; specific performance stays discretionary. 2

What this document is

An agreement to sell a 1-kanal residential plot in DHA Phase VI, Lahore. The buyer pays 20% as earnest money on signing and the balance at transfer, which must happen by 30 June 2025.

Key obligations

- Vendor must obtain the DHA NOC and appear for transfer by the completion date.
- Vendee must pay the balance of PKR 34,000,000 at transfer.
- If the vendee defaults, the earnest money is forfeited (clause 7).

Points to review

Review

No remedy is stated if the vendor defaults — forfeiture runs one way only. Clause 7, p. 4

Review

Time is not expressly made "of the essence". Clause 4, p. 3
